CONFERENCE OVER THE MEXICAN SITUATION IS HELD BY OFFICIALS

Rejection of American Demands Causes Talk in Congressional Circles of Lifting the Embargo on Arms

PRESIDENT MAY READ MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Battleships Ordered to Remain at Vera Cruz Although Orders Had Been Issued to Relieve Them—German Ambassador Confers With President Wilson—Constitutionalists are Awaiting Outcome of the Situation and Have Halted Movements for the Present.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—The purposes of General Huerta were voiced this morning by a person who is close to the provisional president. The president is determined to reject all the demands set forth in the latest American communication and is resolved to seat the congress just elected.

If congress, however, declares the recent presidential election null and makes arrangements for another election, General Huerta would be disposed to abide by this decision and submit to the people's choice of a man who would occupy the presidency until the autumn of 1916.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—There was still no indication here this morning whether Provisional President Huerta would make a formal reply to the communication made to him by the United States. The nature of the memorandum is said to call for no other reply than compliance. How long Washington expects to wait for this compliance after failing to receive a verbal rejoinder is a question which is greatly interesting the few here who are convinced of the passage of the communication from the United States government to the provisional president.

Mexico City itself is still ignorant of the nature of the new representations made by Washington to General Huerta. The newspapers have printed only denials of the reports from the United States until today, when they partially confirmed them. The Herald, the only English daily newspaper published a dispatch from Vera Cruz, stating that John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson, had confirmed the reports of "certain indications being made by Washington to Mexico."

Notwithstanding the necessary precautions surrounding the transmission by Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires of the Washington dispatch, enough has leaked out here to fill the city with rumors and endless speculation today as to what General Huerta's course of action will be.

Opinion generally is in line with the unofficial information obtainable at the national palace last night that General Huerta intends to refuse compliance with the United States' demands but will proceed with the program he has been following of reorganizing the Mexican congress and abiding by the finding of the body relative to the recent elections, simultaneously ignoring Washington's warning that the new congress will not be countenanced.

Washington, Nov. 6.—At the White House today it was officially stated that Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City had recently been given certain instructions to communicate to the Huerta government. Whether such instructions were the same as those referred to as demanding the elimination of Huerta officials declined to state specifically.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The news that Huerta would reject the American demands for his elimination was received in official circles without comment. Secretary Bryan had a long conference with the president and Chairman Bacon of the senate foreign committee. Talk of lifting the embargo on arms was revived in congressional circles with considerable vigor.

Some senators who have told the president there was an overwhelming sentiment in congress of permitting exports of arms to Mexico, called on him this morning. The president in his message to congress last August took a position against lifting the embargo. Many have been pointing out to him, however, that one of the alternatives open, if Huerta declined to resign through the efforts of diplomacy, was to lend a moral support to the Constitutional movement.

Constitutionalists here declare they do not wish recognition of their belligerency but only wish to

MRS. J. P. MITCHEL, WIFE OF NEW MAYOR OF NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 6.—Mrs. John Purroy Mitchell, wife of the new mayor of New York, is one of the youngest women to become the first lady of the metropolis. For that matter, her husband will be the youngest mayor of that city—his age is thirty-five—and she is not so old. Mrs. Mitchell is an intellectual woman, much interested in ethical culture. Body of Harvey L. Kennedy Found in the North Fork Near Pennsylvania Bridge

Harvey L. Kennedy, age forty years, of 450 Baltimore street, was found dead Thursday morning about 8 o'clock, lying in the shallow water on the east side of the North Fork about 100 feet north of the Pennsylvania railroad bridge. There is every indication that Kennedy fell head first into the water and that he was unable to save himself. The body was found by railroad men who notified police headquarters. Police Chief Sheridan and the headquarters warden crew went to the scene and assisted in removing the body from the water. The ambulance of Bazler & Bradley removed the body to their morgue and relatives were notified.

CINCINNATI ASKS FOR LEGISLATION AGAINST STRIKES

Columbus, Nov. 6.—Governor Cox today heard the plea of a committee of Cincinnati business men, representing the Industrial Peace Association, for "anti-strike" legislation by the general assembly at the January session, but refused to promise that he would introduce a recommendation for such legislation in his message to the legislature.

Dr. Charles A. L. Reed, president of the board of trustees of the Industrial Peace Association, said he was chairman for the committee. He stated that plans are laid for a general industrial warfare in Cincinnati next year and that the business community should be considered an "enemy" of the governor. The governor promised to take the question under advisement and nothing in mind to counter the presentation of this message to the legislature. He said that he would not "confuse the legislative session of the coming session."

FREIGHTS COLLIDE; THREE MEN KILLED

Alliance, O., Nov. 6.—Three men were killed and four injured in a head-on collision of freight trains of the Lake Erie, Alliance & Welland railroad, three miles southwest of here at noon today. All were trainmen. Two of the dead were John Martin, brakeman, Alliance, and Howard Davis, fireman, Paris, O.

A Hanover Man Held in Philadelphia For Enticing Girls

(Special to the Advocate.) Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Charged with having enticed Ella Craig, 12 years of age, and her sister, Marie, from Hanover, Licking county, O., Walter Sparks of Hanover, and John Peterson of Ashabula, were held under $500 bail for court by Commissioner Edmunds. The federal authorities believe the couple were brought there for white slave purposes.

NURSE REWARDED FOR HER HEROISM ON ELLIS ISLAND

Washington, Nov. 6.—Marthe Novick, an immigrant girl escaped the terrors of the burning Volturno only to fall ill and temporarily insane in the Ellis Island hospital where she eluded her nurses and flung herself into New York bay. The heroism of a nurse, Mrs. Anna Olsen, who plunged into the water after the insane woman and after a hard fight brought her safely to a dock where both were saved, was made the subject of an investigation by Surgeon-General Blue of the public health service with a recommendation that Mrs. Olsen's bravery be rewarded by a substantial increase in pay.

WILL BE MANY VACANT ROOMS AFTER NOV. 24

After Monday, Nov. 24, there will be more than 30 business rooms, formerly occupied by saloons, vacated in Newark. The granting of 61 licenses in the county leaves 33 rejected applicants, nearly all of whom are in business here.

All rejected applicants now in the liquor business must close out before Nov. 24. The law provides midnight of Nov. 23 as the actual quitting time, but as that date is Sunday, the applicants who failed to get licenses must close finally Saturday night, say members of the county license commission.

The commission is empowered to revoke the license of any saloonist for just cause, and the law operates automatically with the second conviction of law violation. Messrs J. N. Wright, and O. C. Larson of the county license commission expressed the opinion Thursday that those who have been successful in obtaining licenses will respect the privilege by strict observance of regulations.

UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL STONE TO REV. MOORE

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—A memorial stone of carved Japanese granite, gift of Japanese people, to the late Rev. Channing Moore Williams, D. D., Episcopal bishop of Japan, will be unveiled at the grave of Bishop Williams here tomorrow in the presence of high dignitaries of the Episcopal church in America and Japan. Bishop McKim of London, Bishop Tucker of Kyoto and the Rev. Kobashi, who attended the Episcopal general convention in New York will attend the unveiling.

Bishop Gibson and leaders of the diocese of Virginia, will take part in the exercises. Bishop Williams, who died in Richmond in 1910, is called the father of the Christian Church in the Orient. He sailed on the famous far eastern voyage with Perry in 1855 and began his work in the treaty ports.

HERMANN TALKS OF RUMOR OF TENER AS PRESIDENT

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—President August Hermann of the Cincinnati baseball team in discussing the possibility of Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania becoming president of the National League, said:

"I was informed a week ago that such a movement was under way. I understood that President Baker of the Philadelphia Nationals and President Drexler of the Louisville club, had laid the matter in charge. I cannot see, however, how Governor Tener could combine the two positions. One or the other would keep him busy all the time."

However, Tener is a national figure and I believe the presidency of the league is practically settled if he wants the position. I was with him during every game of the recent world series and he did not intimate in any way that he wanted the position."

Gov. Ralston Takes Drastic Action on Account of Indianapolis Street Car Strike and May Declare Martial Law

TROOPS ENTRAINING WILL ARRIVE THIS AFTERNOON

Rioting in the Streets Caused Governor to Take Immediate Precaution to Guard Against Further Destruction of Property After City Officials Failed on Agreement of Peaceful Solution of Settling the Strike

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—The entire state militia of Indiana has been ordered out by Governor Ralston, on account of the street car strike here. The governor also announced he would declare martial law.

All of the troops are expected here this afternoon.

The governor's decision was reached after the conference yesterday with city officials, representatives of clubs and organizations had failed to reach any agreement on a peaceable means of settling the strike. The rioting in the streets yesterday when the street car company tried to run a car which was deserted by the strike-breakers after they had been stoned, gave the governor additional reason for this action.

The governor said this morning that the four companies of infantry and the battery here in Indianapolis would not be called out until a sufficient number of other companies from over the state had arrived, so that there would be no question about controlling the situation after troops were once on the streets.

The governor was up all night with Brigadier General William J. McKee and other officials of the National Guard perfecting arrangements for getting the outside companies to Indianapolis and their disposition when they reach the city. Whether the troops would be placed on the street cars, the governor said had not been determined.

The Indiana National Guard numbers about 2000 soldiers, including three battery companies, and all of these are expected to be in the city late this afternoon.

The governor said he regretted that the troops had to be called out, but that the situation is critical and he would not delay longer. "Men are being assaulted and killed," said Governor Ralston, "property is being destroyed and there is rioting in the streets, which the city authorities have not controlled and I feel it is my duty to take this drastic action."

Troops in all parts of the state received orders early today to hurry to Indianapolis under heavy marching orders as rapidly as special trains could get them here. The orders were not to wait on regular trains.

The first troops are expected here shortly after noon, but several of the militia companies may not arrive until tonight. While the final orders for the encampment of the militia have not been decided it was expected that as many as possible would be quartered in the local armories and the state house and that the overflow would be camped on the state house lawn and in the downtown parks. The troops are to bring all of their equipment with them.

President Robert I. Todd of the street car company said this morning that no effort would be made to start the cars until the national guardsmen arrive and obtain control of the city. He said this might not be until tomorrow, but that he was ready to start the car service as soon as the authorities were sure that they could protect the cars.

There was no rioting during last night or early today. Trouble is not expected until another attempt is made to move the cars. A large crowd, however, was gathered in front of the labor temple.

Labor leaders when they heard the militia had been called out protested to Governor Ralston against his action. John I. Keegan, member of the last legislature and at present holding a position in the state auditor's office, told the governor he was going to order the strikers and meet the militia at the trains.

M. L. Clawson, a labor attorney, on behalf of the strikers, filed a written protest with the governor against the state intervention in the strike. The protest asserts that the police and sheriff have not exhausted their powers and that the state should not interfere until this is done.

A mass meeting of strikers protesting against calling out the militia was called and it is rumored that stones are being taken by state officials to prevent the meeting being held there.

EXEMPTION OF PUBLIC BONDS IS DEFEATED

Columbus, Nov. 6.—The defeat of the proposed amendment to exempt public bonds from taxation is indicated by returns from almost all the counties of the state. The vote of the rural districts was against the proposition, and was sufficiently large to overcome that of the cities, which, in the main, was for it. It is believed that the majority against it will be close to 5000. The proposition was most in favor in Hamilton and Cayahoga counties, which gave it large majorities.

The amendment giving women the right to serve as heads of institutions for the care of women and children is the only one of five amendments which apparently carried. It was given a substantial majority. The exact figures will not be known until the official returns are made to the secretary of state.

It is believed that the anti-slipping bill was defeated by a majority amounting to 100,000. The state short ballot amendment was probably the worst defeat of any. It carried only in Hamilton, Cayahoga and possibly Lucas counties. It obtained less than 20,000 votes while something like 415,000 were cast against it.

The country short ballot was also overwhelmingly defeated. It received some 20,277, while 389,000 were recorded against it.

U. S. BATTLESHIPS ON WAY TO PORTS OF MEDITERRANEAN

Gibraltar, Nov. 6.—The squadron of nine United States battleships which is on its way to visit Mediterranean ports, passed the rock on its eastward voyage early this morning. Great regret was expressed in Gibraltar that the vessels did not stop here for a time.

The squadron consists of the flagship Wyoming, the Utah, Florida, Arkansas, Delaware, Vermont, Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio with the auxiliaries Olinde, Solace, Cyclops, Orion and Jason. It is to be divided into two elements, the Vermont and Ohio going to Marseilles, the Arkansas and Florida to Naples, the Connecticut and Kansas to Genoa and the Utah and Delaware to Ville Franche, while the Wyoming is to make a trip in which she will call at Malta, Naples and Ville Franche.

The movements of the smaller vessels will be under the direction of the commander of the squadron.

AWAIT ARRIVAL OF AMERICAN SHIPS

Naples, Nov. 6.—A division of the Italian fleet under the command of the Duca de the Abruzzi anchored here today to await the arrival of the American battleships, Arkansas and Florida, which are expected Saturday.

"PREXY" LEHR TO BE "PRESERVED" IN THE MOVIES

Founder of Ada University Although Past Three Score and Ten is Still Active.

Ada, Nov. 6.—Away back in 1848 Henry S. Lehr came to Ada and started a university. There was no state appropriation, no oil magnate's endowment. His foundation was enthusiasm, hard work and brotherly love.

For 26 years this big little man—little in body, big in heart and intellect, did not average over four hours sleep in 24. Classes began at five in the morning and continued until nine at night. Fifty-two weeks made a school year.

Today, past seventy-five he walks with the springy step of youth the broad streets of the little city, which has grown up about the school which he started forty-seven years ago.

"Prexy" Lehr was born in Mahoning county in 1828, and his childhood is a pioneer story of poverty and success wrung from difficulty.

Starting at twelve with the old Webster spelling book he went ahead with an energy which enabled him to go through Ray's arithmetic in six weeks.

When he was sixteen he walked sixteen miles to Canton, and had fifteen cents left after buying a ticket to Wooster to take a teacher's examination. At the close of the examination one of the men in charge, pointing to young Lehr, said: "That boy will carry home the best certificate given today." He did, although he had to walk with his certificate in his pocket and without supper.

His school is now second among the thirty-two colleges of Ohio. They are going to photo him for the movies to preserve his shadow. They are tearing down his old "normal" to build a great "Lehr Memorial" on its site; but Prexy Lehr's real memorial is hidden in the hearts of "my boys" as he lovingly calls the thousands of Northern alumni scattered in every country of the world.

NEWLYWEDS MAY CAUSE ARREST OF PRACTICAL JOKERS

When joking friends go so far as to break into one's newly furnished house and turn it topsy-turvy, that's too much to be considered a joke. This is the experience of a newly wedded couple who has taken up residence in a high street, and who declare they will cause the arrest of practical jokers who invaded their home. While the newlyweds were away, the intruders proceeded to make merry, and then left the house with its doors open or unlocked and the wedding presents there unguarded.

Youthful, Beautiful Skin Easy to Have.

From The Clubwoman.
You may be as healthy as a bird in the air and still have a poor complexion. Changing seasons and temperatures, winds, dust and dirt, are apt to ruin any skin, even though the general health be good. When these external influences complicate the complexion, the natural thing is to remove the spoil by external means. Ordinary mercurial wash will do this. It will actually absorb the weather-beaten film from the skin, and in a week or two you'll have a brand new complexion, a new skin. The exquisitely beautiful and youthful complexion thus acquired comes so easily, without harm or discomfort, there's no reason why any woman should not adopt this simple treatment. Get an ounce of mercurial wash at any drug store, apply nightly like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. This will not fail in any case.
To quickly remove wrinkles, signs of age and age, bathe the face occasionally in a solution of powdered geranium leaves dissolved in a pint of water. The results will surprise you. Advertisement.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1740—Jack Broughton, who was champion of England for 18 years, issued his code of rules governing prizefights. By these rules, which governed all the matches held in Broughton's amphitheatre in Oxford road, London, hitting an opponent when down, or on his knees, was prohibited, and hitting below the waist also came under the ban. The rules provided that each round was to continue until one man was knocked down, and if he was unable to face his antagonist within 20 seconds after a fall he was considered beaten. This code continued in effect until 1838, or nearly a century.

Medical Specialists in England.
What makes a doctor a specialist? Can any physician or surgeon with money behind him take a house in Harley street or neighbourhood and practice as a specialist? He can do so, but it by no means follows that he will be recognized as a specialist by the profession.
To win the professional status of specialist a man must hold or have held a professorship at a medical school or an appointment at a hospital in connection with the disease or group of diseases in which he professes to specialize.
Further, he must conform to certain rules of professional conduct. He must not take a fee less than 1 guinea—2 guineas is the rule in London, and some charge 3 or even more—for a consultation, save in extraordinary circumstances. He must not see a new patient except on the introduction of the patient's own medical man. If called to a case the patient's medical man must be present or the specialist will decline to see the sufferer.—London Tatler.

Public Health.
Diseases and epidemics used to be counted as "acts of God" in the old legal phrase. It has taken modern sanitary science to discover that the most of them result from acts of man, and that a good portion of the rest may be controlled by the exercise of man's power over nature. The United States government has been a pioneer among the nations in demonstrating the power of modern sanitation to save life. It sent Waring to Havana. He made it a city of health and laid down his life in so doing. It took a fever-stricken tropic wilderness, its noxious jungles steaming under a torrid sun and the death rate of the Panama canal zone is today an example to the most salubrious regions of the world. The whole history of modern sanitation tends to drive home public responsibility for public health.—St. Louis Republic.

A Fairly Good Reason.
Sir William Meredith, chief justice of Ontario, and Mr. Hellmuth are mutual fathers-in-law, the lawyer's daughter having wedded the son of the knight. During a rather tedious argument on a case which Sir William was hearing Mr. Hellmuth was proceeding to elaborate on a certain point of law which he thought had an important bearing on the issue. But the chief justice thought otherwise. He was impatient. For awhile he listened to the lawyer's argument; then he leaned back with an air of boredom and interrupted with: "Mr. Hellmuth, it seems to me that this is not relevant. What reason is there why I should be compelled to listen to all this?" Mr. Hellmuth's mouth had just a suspicion of a smile around its corners as he answered: "Reason, my lord? Why, $5,000 a year."

Canals of Venice as Sewers.
One by one the illusions of life are shattered. Who has not heard of the gondoliers of Venice, the sweet singers whose voices are wafted across the waters as they guide their graceful craft through the canals of the streetless city? "I used to think how poetical it was," said a returned traveler, "but I found the real reason for their singing was a very practical one. Venice has absolutely no sanitary regulations, and the little canals are just so many sewers into which is dumped all the garbage from the houses. There is no system of plumbing, and the refuse is simply thrown from the windows, so unless you let the householder know you are passing by you are apt to get a douche of dirty water or garbage."—New York Tribune.

Took It Good Naturedly.
Four-year-old Tom was expressing his sorrow and anger at the act of a neighbor who had drowned four "beautiful little kittens." "She might have given them to me," said the boy. "Never mind, Tom," said grandfather: "we have lovely kittens of our own. We have a nice little boy kitten." "That's me," said Tom proudly. "And a lovely little girl kitten." "That's sister Ella," said Tom, pointing his spoon at his sister. "And the dearest old cat in California." "That's grandma," said the youth exultantly.
Grandma glowered for a second of time, and then she burst out laughing.—Los Angeles Times.

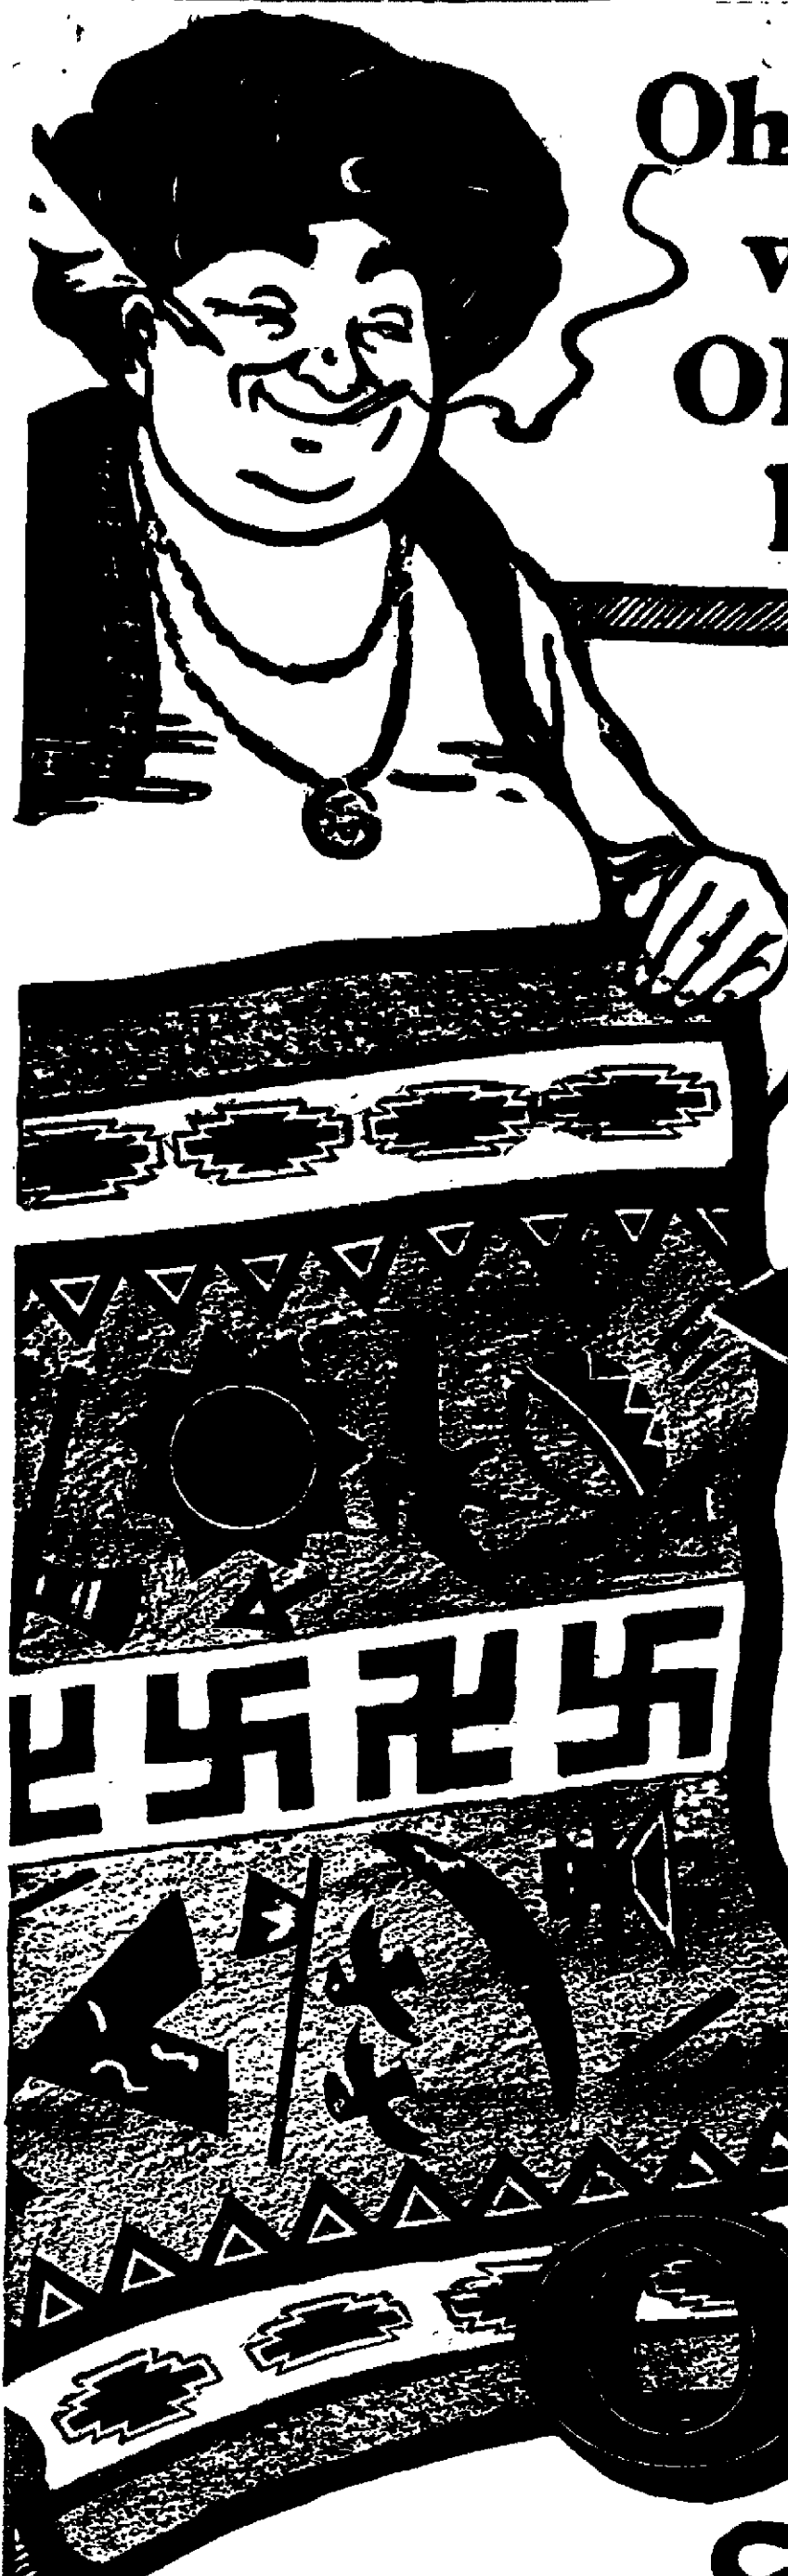

Sad Awakening.
"I shall never marry," said the young man with a pointed beard.
"Because you are an artist?"
"Yes. I painted a picture of the girl to whom I was engaged. She said that if that was the way I thought she looked it was better for us to part."—Washington Star.

President Wilson set his fellow-citizens in all parts of the country a fine example by going to Princeton, New Jersey, and casting his vote at Tuesday's election. Every man who is entitled to the privilege of voting should exercise that privilege as a matter of sovereign duty. Our government is a partial failure if the people refuse to participate in the choice of representatives who will give their collective will effect. To vote, and afterward, when the result of the voting is made known, to accept the verdict of the polls with good will and good nature, is the distinguishing characteristic of American democracy. The will of the majority, when duly ascertained, must be accepted as the final elective test in the management of the details of administration. The voter who does not vote cannot complain if the will of the majority goes against the grain.

There is continued expression of the importance of the fact that in the states where general elections were held the results show an emphatic endorsement of the administration of Woodrow Wilson.

There are three known sorts of orchids. To give her the idea that the orchid is a common weed, this is an interesting fact to tell a young woman when she hints that she would like a few to wear to the theatre.

Speaking of a recent death, a young man said the cause was "bronchitis pneumonia." That form is said to be unusually rare.

Several years ago Newark had a Justice of the Peace Scott—Milton R. Scott, author of Prison Reform, supposed Diary of President Lincoln, and other books. The new justice is Fletcher S. Scott, who was safety director under the Ankerle administration.

Newark Druggist Has Valuable Agency

R. F. Collins, druggist, 21 Hudson avenue, has the Newark agency for the simple mixture of medicine called, "Alders," which is a powerful remedy for curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and relieves such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. The QUICK action of Alders is astonishing.

—AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Ben Davis.

Where now is old Ben Davis, that widely famed galeot? May guardian angels save us from Ben and all his fruit! In office and in chapel men roast that total loss, that fierce and futile apple that old Ben put across. The barber men who shave us, the boys, who shine our boots, all jump on old Ben Davis, and cuss his misfit fruits. And for Ben's apple loathing will evermore endure—that wot in mutton's clothing, that whited sepulchre. It typifies the shoddy, it's false as human sin; so slick in outer body, so bam and cheap within. The red Ben Davis apple is tempting, smooth and smart; but when with it you grapple it simply breaks your heart; you cuss the name of Davis, and grind your teeth and hiss: "Why does the monster brave us by springing fruit like this?" So gaudy takes still tempt us, beguile us everywhere, and may the gods exempt us, and keep us from the snare!

Two and Four Tined Forks.

A writer in the Washington Post tells of an old lady who remembered dining at the White House with Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Adams. Mr. Adams ate with his fork, and Mrs. Adams apologized for it, saying that he had acquired the habit during his sojourn in France. Mrs. Adams and the other guests used their knives. All this is a comment on changing manners. But it should be noted that Mr. Adams ate with a four tined silver fork, while the other guests had only two tined forks, which then were the common kind. Without the development of the four tined fork the habit of eating with one's knife would not have been so rapidly discarded. As between a four tined fork and a knife the fork is to be chosen for convenience's sake, but as between a two tined fork and a knife on many occasions the latter would be actually the more serviceable.—Springfield Republican.

Power of Lightning.

It is hardly possible to use instruments for the purpose of figuring the forces of lightning, yet there are many other ways of calculating familiar to every mathematician. The amount of light given by a single lightning flash is enough to illuminate an area two miles square. The bolt itself would be visible several miles farther off, but the remotest part of the region mentioned would have as much light as would be given by a candle—quite enough to read by. To produce such a light it would be necessary to expend 10,000 horsepower for a second. These figures appear very large, but the time is short. The flash might be for only one-thousandth part of a second, but the impression on the eye would continue for a tenth of a second any way. Figure down to an exact hour this amount of light would mean only about four horsepower.—Electric News.

An Effective Rebuke.

Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria is not one of the most conventional of monarchs and sometimes rebukes his officials in a fashion which comes particularly near a practical joke. On one occasion the emperor sent a message to the official who was responsible for keeping his roads in order, stating that in a couple of days a royal carriage would be sent to convey him to the estate of Linz. On the day appointed the emperor's coachman drove the official at full gallop over the worst roads in the district, splashing him from head to foot in mud. When he eventually arrived at the estate he began profuse apologies for the state of his clothes to the grand duke, but was met with the prearranged reply, "Oh, that's nothing! The emperor comes home like that every time he goes out for a drive." The official's roads were soon put in perfect order.

The Human Procession

The Right Hon. Herbert Louis Samuel, British Postmaster-General, who has just concluded a tour of Canada and the United States, will celebrate his forty-third birthday today. He is one of the many brilliant and able Jews who have won high place in English politics within the last half century. He was born in Liverpool and educated in Oxford, and was only twenty-five when he entered the political arena. He has held his present high position since 1910, and has inaugurated many reforms. As Postmaster-General he is in charge of the telegraph, telephone and wireless systems of Great Britain, as well as the postoffice proper. He is in favor of universal penny or two-cent postage between all the countries of the world. Mr. Samuel comes of a wealthy Jewish family whose members have long been prominent in British finance and politics. He is a witty and forceful speaker and debater, and has often been chosen as spokesman for the government in announcing important policies.

Armand Fallieres, who retired as President of France the first of this year, will celebrate his seventy-second birthday today. "Papa" Fallieres is a venerable and obese cupid, whose main mission in life is now to help poor French youths to commit matrimony. Race suicide is the curse of France, in the opinion of Farmer Fallieres, and to prevent it he has interested himself in various societies which provide marriage portions to young ladies. Without a "dot," no young Frenchwoman, however attractive, can hope to acquire a husband. The former president of the republic Francaise now divides his time between his Paris establishment and his country estate, where he lives the bucolic life of a simple wine-grower.

Two distinguished men in the musical world, Ignace Jan Paderewski and John Philip Sousa, were born on the sixth of November—the former in 1860 and the latter in 1856. The world-famous pianist and composer first saw the light of day in Russian Poland, while the great bandmaster was born in the city of Washington. Paderewski began to play the piano at the tender age of three, while Sousa was a music teacher at fifteen and an orchestra conductor two years later. Sousa's band is known throughout the civilized world, and many of his compositions are equally famous. As a pianist Paderewski stands alone, and his genius has won flattering recognition in all the continents of the globe.

Nelson Winthart Aldrich, long the Republican leader of the United States senate, but now retired to private life, will pass his seventy-second milestone today. The Rhode Island statesman made an extended tour of Europe and Egypt after his retirement from the senate, of which he was a member for over thirty years.

Holman Francis Day is the full name of the eminent novelist and poet who put Maine on the literary map. He was born in Vassalboro, Me., forty-eight years ago today, and was managing editor of the Lewiston Journal and other papers, and Maine correspondent of the Boston Herald, before he began to devote his entire time to writing for books and magazines and running a power boat. Mr. Day is the skipper of the yacht, Day Jones.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Don't Stir Up Dust.

It is safe to say that if a sample of dust be taken at random from any office, warehouse, shop or factory, and this sample be properly tested for germs, the tubercle bacillus or the germ of consumption, will invariably be found to be present in large numbers. Now, it is the inhalation of dry, germ laden dust that is the commonest cause of consumption, so that anything that tends to stir up this dust and convey it to the mouth is literally "tempting Providence," especially in weakly and anaemic persons with consumptive tendencies. As far as possible remove all dust from your work and neighborhood by means of a damp duster. Never apply dusty fingers, stamps, envelopes or other objects capable of carrying disease germs to your tongue. Have a moist pad handy—it is easily obtainable—and use it.

HANDICAPS OF PRIVATE EXECUTORS

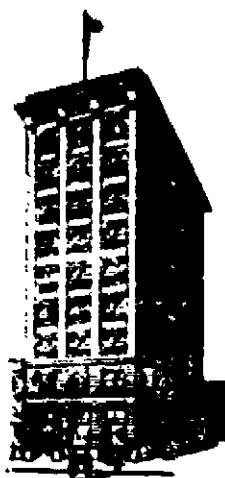

An individual acting as executor is generally handicapped by lack of experience and practically always by lack of time. Moreover, in addition to these handicaps there is the inevitable fact that the individual may die before his duties have been completed.

This company brings to its service as executor broad experience and perpetual existence. Moreover, it has deposited with the treasurer of the state a large amount of bonds as a guarantee for the faithful performance of trust duties.

Within a Century Resources of World Will Be Taxed to Full Capacity

By H. N. DICKSON, of the British Association For the Advancement of Science

THE GEOGRAPHER OF THE FUTURE WILL HAVE AS HIS FIELD THE VITAL QUESTIONS OF SUPPLYING AND DISTRIBUTING FOOD AND CLOTHES TO THE WORLD.

Foremost of these vital questions will be that of GROWING WHEAT ENOUGH FOR THE WORLD'S BREAD. A host of problems of the future are marshaled behind this, among them being the questions of obtaining power and energy sufficient to operate the needed increase in factories, the fuel question and distribution of population. Within a century the resources of the world will be TAXED TO THEIR FULL CAPACITY.

CIVILIZED MAN IS, OR OUGHT TO BE, BEGINNING TO REALIZE THAT IN REDUCING MORE AND MORE OF THE SURFACE OF THE EARTH TO WHAT HE CONSIDERS A HABITABLE CONDITION HE IS MAKING SO MUCH PROGRESS AND MAKING IT SO RAPIDLY THAT THE PROBLEM OF FINDING SUITABLE ACCOMMODATION FOR HIS INCREASING NUMBERS MUST BECOME URGENT WITHIN A FEW GENERATIONS.

We are getting into the position of the merchant whose trade is constantly expanding and who foresees that his premises will shortly be TOO SMALL FOR HIM. In our case removal to more commodious premises elsewhere seems impossible, for we are not likely to find a means of migrating to another planet and are thus driven to consider means of REBUILDING ON THE OLD SITE.

If prophecies based on population statistics are trustworthy the CRISIS WILL BE UPON US BEFORE THE END OF THE CENTURY. After that we must either depend upon some substitute to reduce the consumption per head, or we must take to intensive farming of the most strenuous sort.

WILSON AGAINST MORE TERRITORY

"Land Hunger" Agitation Gets Quietus From President.

SPANISH WAR A REVELATION

Senator Overman's Amendment Providing That Executive May Veto Appropriation Bills Likely to Meet Successful Opposition—Talk of Penalizing Absentee Senators.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN. • Washington, Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Critics of President Wilson's declaration that we should not take any more territory on this continent assert that he had no right to make pledges beyond his own administration. But the president is one who knows pretty well the temper and sentiment of the American people. He knows that if we were as "land hungry" as we were in former days nothing could have prevented a war with Mexico and a spoliation of her territory. "Land hunger" for Cuba was behind most of the troubles in that island. Independence from Spanish rule was fostered by the feeling that "Cuba ought to be ours." The freebooters, buccaners and adventurous spirits fostered the various revolutions in Cuba which resulted in our intervention. But back of it all was the desire that has ever been present in most minds that Cuba ought to be in the possession of the United States.

We Have Got Enough. But the Spanish war has given us quite a fill. It has appeared the "land hunger" save of those whose interests would be greatly benefited by acquisition of a large slice of Mexican territory. President Wilson knows that our people do not want to assimilate any more Spanish Americans. Secretary Root in his famous speech at Rio de Janeiro declared that we did not want a foot of territory. We did not. After taking Porto Rico, making Cuba a protectorate, getting the best naval territory of that island, seizing a part of Colombia in order to build the Panama canal, our "land hunger" was appeased.

Blow to Log Rolling. If Senator Overman's amendment to be constitution of the United States could ever be adopted it would be a blow to log rolling. The North Carolina senator proposes to allow the president power to veto items in appropriation bills. But congress will never agree to that. Oftentimes there is included in appropriation bills legislation designed to coerce the executive. He signs the bill rather than have an extra session of congress or go through all the forms of waiting for another bill. Just imagine how many public buildings would be lopped off, how many mail river and harbor provisions could go out and how many little pieces of personal legislation in other bills would be dropped out if a president alone were responsible for vetoing certain items. One way in which these bills are passed is because there is a general combination for them.

Senate Absentees. Senator Bacon was complaining because an important action was taken when there were only a few senators present. "I do not think," remarked senator Chamberlain of Oregon, "that senators who stay at their post of duty ought to be penalized by absenteeism. There is room for senators to be here." He added and looked about the empty seats. And as there were about seventy vacant chairs everybody had to agree with him.

They "Stick Around." Enough of Jim Mann's followers stick around" to force a roll call every day. There are a lot of members who do not like to have their names constantly on the absentee list, and it is expected that they will answer the roll call now that the elections are over. They have been campaigning in several states.

Rely on Subordinates. A paragraph, just as it was news, appeared in a local paper recently saying that a new appointee found it necessary to rely on subordinates in order to get a grasp of the public business. The appointees of a political character, who take politics or favoritism plays a whole part, are assistants to cabinet officers and heads of bureaus. These men are supposed to know what to do, because they have to act. And it is the subordinates who really now and upon whom all these officers have to depend for information. For he must part some of the departments could run along smoothly if there were no cabinet officers, assistants nor heads of bureaus.

Danger of Bureaucrats. It might be a good thing if all the fields except cabinet officers were left in office under civil service regulations save for the fact that many of these employees become bureaucrats, set their ways, with an idea that they are the government instead of employees. Changes are necessary in order to get new blood, new ideas, progress and better business results may follow. Absolute life tenure in executive positions creates an arrogance which is not beneficial to the public service.

We get so tired giving other people advice that we are sometimes tempted to use some of it ourselves.

WOMAN CHAMPION RADISH GROWER

Probably the largest radish in captivity is that which has been forwarded to the vegetable editor of The Advocate by Mrs. A. D. Petty, Newark. R. F. D. 1, who grew the monster specimen in her garden in radish township this fall. It is the winter variety which requires from eight to ten weeks to develop. The big radish is 18 inches in length, 12 inches in circumference, and weighs three pounds and five ounces. Despite its size and weight the stalk is tender, juicy and practically perfect in formation.

Meeting for praise, prayer and conference on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject for discussion, "Our Duty Toward Our Brother." Business of importance to be considered at the close of this service. John E. Arblaster, pastor.

An Orchard Turned Profitable.

That orcharding affords an opportunity to the farmer in southern Ohio is exemplified in the success of C. H. Wilgers of Lawrence county. His experience, which was at first unprofitable and later a success, has been with an orchard of 1000 Rome apple trees which are now 23 years old. Nine years ago Mr. Wilgers would have sold his thirty acres of fruit trees for $2000. They had not been paying expenses for the first 15 years. When the owner found that he could not make the sale even at such a reduced price he decided to put in some work on his orchard in an effort to make it more profitable.

He pruned, sprayed and started a system of mulching with weeds and dead leaves. The result of his work is shown in the first year, when he harvested 2000 barrels of apples, which were enough to make a nice profit on his year's work. Thus encouraged, Mr. Wilgers continued to care for his orchard and it has not failed to produce an excellent crop of apples for the last eight years. During this time the thirty acres have cleared more than $2000 a year for the owner, which would make a total profit of $24,000 from an orchard that once failed to sell for the sum of $2000. Mr. Wilgers attributes his success directly to the fact that he has given attention to his orchard by spraying, mulching and fertilizing. Fertilizers have been used only during the last two years.

First Things

The first Young Men's Christian Association was organized in London in 1844 by George Williams, who was knighted, and became Sir George Williams in 1894, and who died eight years ago today. The "father of the Y. M. C. A." was born in Dulverton, Somersetshire, in 1821. At the age of twenty he went to London as a junior assistant in the drapery establishment of Hitchcock & Rogers. The young man from the country, like so many others who have gone from small towns and rural districts to a large city, was very lonely, and, although he made many friends among his fellow employees, they had no place where they could spend their leisure with pleasure and profit to themselves. The Somersetshire lad suggested a social club and this idea met with the approval of his employers, who provided a room in which their young men could meet. In 1844 this informal organization developed into the first Young Men's Christian Association, with a charter membership of 13—certainly not an unlucky number in this case. The purpose of this pioneer Y. M. C. A. was to "improve the spiritual condition of the young men engaged in the drapery and other trades."

OPENS UP NOSTRILS, CLEARS HEAD, ENDS COLDS OR CATARRH AT ONCE

Instantly Relieves Swollen, Inflamed Nose, Head, Throat—You Breathe Freely—Dull Headache Goes—Nasty Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dizziness and headache disappear by morning; the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves the heat of the nostrils, penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat, clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

SEPARATE SCHOOL AT CLEVELAND FOR MANUAL TRAINING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 6.—"Hand-minded" children—those who work better with their hands than with their brains—are being given their chance in a separate school at Cleveland, according to a bulletin issued by the federal bureau of education. The elementary industrial school, as it is called, was started to give such boys and girls as good a chance in life as the "language minded" have always had.

Half of the pupils' time is devoted to English, mathematics, geography and history while the remainder is given over to manual and industrial work, domestic science and gymnasium practice.

ESPECIAL INTEREST TO LADIES

The first shipment of Harmony Hair Beautifier and Harmony Shampoo has been received. These are new preparations, just out. Harmony Hair Beautifier renders the hair lustrous, bright and glossy; soft, silky and wavy. It is just what its name implies—just to make the hair glossy and lustrous and more beautiful; to make it easier to dress, and to give that delightful fresh and cool effect and leave a lingering, delicate, elusive perfume. It will not change or darken the color of the hair. Contains no oil, therefore cannot leave the hair sticky or stringy. Very pleasant to use, easy to apply; simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

Harmony Shampoo is a liquid shampoo to keep the hair clean, soft, smooth and beautiful, and leaves a refreshing sense of cool sweet cleanliness.

NOSTRIOLA OPENS NOSTRILS

BREAKS A COLD, STOPS CATARRH

This Simple Common-Sense Treatment Costs But a Trifle and Brings Quick Relief.

Nostriola is a simple, harmless antiseptic balm that quickly opens the head, purifies and heals the mucous linings of the air passages and this treatment is much more pleasant and satisfactory than stomach dosing to cure a cold.

Everybody knows that colds lead to Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Catarrhal Headache, Nasal Catarrh, Hay Fever and kindred diseases.

The best time to cure Catarrh is before it becomes chronic, and the quickest way to get results is to apply the treatment direct to the seat of the trouble.

The nostrils and the air passages are the breeding places for the Catarrhal and Hay Fever germs, and these germs thrive and grow when the parts are sore, swollen, and inflamed by colds.

The Nostriola Treatment always affords quick pleasant relief, and many people now use nothing else for Colds, Croup, Catarrh, etc.

A 25c tube to Nostriola contains sixty days' treatment and all druggists sell it. Buy a tube today, and you'll wish you had tried Nostriola sooner.

WILSON AGAINST MORE TERRITORY

"Land Hunger" Agitation Gets Quotes From President.

SPANISH WAR A REVELATION

Senator Overman's Amendment Providing That Executive May Veto Appropriation Bills Likely to Meet Successful Opposition—Talk of Penalizing Absentee Senators.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Critics of President Wilson's declaration that we should not take any more territory on this continent assert that he had no right to make pledges beyond his own administration. But the president is one who knows pretty well the temper and sentiment of the American people. He knows that if we were as "land hungry" as we were in former days nothing could have prevented a war with Mexico and a spoliation of her territory. "Land hunger" for Cuba was behind most of the troubles in that island. Independence from Spanish rule was fostered by the feeling that "Cuba ought to be long to us." The freebooters, buccanniers and adventurous spirits fostered the various revolutions in Cuba which resulted in our intervention. But back of it all was the desire that has ever been present in most minds that Cuba ought to be in the possession of the United States.

We Have Got Enough.

But the Spanish war has given us quite a fill. It has appeased the "land hunger" save of those whose interests would be greatly benefited by acquisition of a large slice of Mexican territory. President Wilson knows that our people do not want to assimilate any more Spanish Americans. Secretary Root in his famous speech at Rio de Janeiro declared that we did not want a foot of territory. We did not. After taking Porto Rico, making Cuba a protectorate, getting the best naval territory of that island, seizing a part of Colombia in order to build the Panama canal, our "land hunger" was appeased.

Blow to Log Rolling.

If Senator Overman's amendment to the constitution of the United States should ever be adopted it would be a blow to log rolling. The North Carolina senator proposes to allow the president power to veto items in appropriation bills. But congress will never agree to that. Oftentimes there is included in appropriation bills legislation designed to coerce the executive, and he signs the bill rather than have an extra session of congress or go through all the forms of waiting for another bill.

Just imagine how many public buildings would be lopped off, how many small river and harbor provisions would go out and how many little pieces of personal legislation in other bills would be dropped out if a president alone were responsible for vetoing certain items. One way in which those bills are passed is because there is a general combination for them.

Senate Absentees.

Senator Bacon was complaining because an important action was taken when there were only a few senators present. "I do not think," remarked Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, "that senators who stay at their post of duty ought to be penalized by absenteeism. There is room for senators to be here, he added and looked about the empty seats. And as there were about seventy vacant chairs everybody had to agree with him."

They "Stick Around."

Enough of Jim Mann's followers "stick around" to force a roll call every day. There are a lot of members who do not like to have their names constantly on the absentee list, and it is expected that they will answer the roll calls now that the elections are over. They have been campaigning in several states.

Rely on Subordinates.

A paragraph, just as if it were news, appeared in a local paper recently saying that a new appointee found it necessary to rely on subordinates in order to get a grasp of the public business. The appointees of a political character, in which politics or favoritism plays the whole part, are assistants to cabinet officers and heads of bureaus. These men are supposed to know what to do, because they have to act. And yet it is the subordinates who really know and upon whom all these officers have to depend for information. For the most part some of the departments would run along smoothly if there were no cabinet officers, assistants nor heads of bureaus.

Danger of Bureaucrats.

It might be a good thing if all the officials except cabinet officers were kept in office under civil service regulations save for the fact that many of these employees become bureaucrats, set in their ways, with an idea that they are the government instead of employees. Changes are necessary in order that new blood, new ideas, progression and better business results may follow. Absolute life tenure in executive positions creates an arrogance which is not beneficial to the public service.

We get so tired giving other people advice that we are sometimes tempted to use some of it ourselves.

WOMAN CHAMPION RADISH GROWER

Probably the largest radish in captivity is that which has been forwarded to the vegetable editor of The Advocate by Mrs. A. D. Petty, Newark, R. F. D. 1, who grew the monster specimen in her garden in Madison township this fall. It is the winter variety which requires from eight to ten weeks to develop. The big radish is 18 inches in length, 12 inches in circumference, and weighs three pounds and five ounces. Despite its size and weight the stalk is tender, juicy and practically perfect in formation.

Meeting for praise, prayer and conference on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject for discussion, "Our Duty Toward Our Brother."

Business of importance to be considered at the close of this service. John E. Arblaster, pastor.

An Orchard Turned Profitable.

That orcharding affords an opportunity to the farmer in southern Ohio is exemplified in the success of C. H. Wilgers of Lawrence county. His experience, which was at first unprofitable and later a success, has been with an orchard of 1000 Rome apple trees which are now 23 years old. Nine years ago Mr. Wilgers had fruit trees for $2000. They had not been paying for expenses for the first 15 years. When the owner found that he could not make the sale even at such a reduced price he decided to put in some work on his orchard in an effort to make it more profitable. He pruned, sprayed and started a system of mulching with weeds and dead leaves. The result of his work is shown in the first year, when he harvested 275 barrels of apples, which were sold for $1000. This encouraged Mr. Wilgers continued to care for his orchard and it has not failed to produce an excellent crop of apples for the last eight years. During this time the thirty acres have cleared more than $2000 a year for the owner, which would make a total profit of $24,000 from an orchard that once failed to sell for the sum of $2000. Mr. Wilgers attributes his success directly to the fact that he has given attention to his orchard by spraying, mulching and fertilizing. Fertilizers have been used only during the last two years.

First Things

The first Young Men's Christian Association was organized in London in 1844 by George Williams, who was knighted, and became Sir George Williams in 1894, and who died eight years ago today. The "father of the Y. M. C. A." was born in Dulverton, Somersetshire, in 1821. At the age of twenty he went to London as a junior assistant in the drapery establishment of Hitchcock & Rogers. The young man from the country, like so many others who have gone from small towns and rural districts to a large city, was very lonely, and, although he made many friends among his fellow employees, they had no place where they could spend their leisure with pleasure and profit to themselves. The Somersetshire lad suggested a social club and this idea met with the approval of his employers, who provided a room in which their young men could meet. In 1844 this informal organization developed into the first Young Men's Christian Association, with a charter membership of 13—certainly not an unlucky number in this case. The purpose of this pioneer Y. M. C. A. was to "improve the spiritual condition of the young men engaged in the drapery and other trades."

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

Girls! Boys! Get a 25 cent bottle and try a "Danderine Hair Cleanser"—Save your hair!

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanser." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

GRANTS INJUNCTION AGAINST ERECTION OF WELL DERRICK

Where may Alexandria bury its dead?

This question has become vital to residents in and near the village in St. Albans township, especially since the march of progress has stopped up the only means of ingress and egress that the cemetery has had in a century.

In order that the burying ground may be used between now and final settlement of the dispute, Judge T. B. Fulton has granted a temporary restraining order to prevent George Vanness from erecting an oil or gas well derrick in the driveway, and has required $300 bond.

The temporary order was granted on petition of Orlando Dumbauld, Asa Hammond and Cephus Amore, trustees of St. Albans township, represented by Attorneys Fitzgibbon, Montgomery & Black. They complain that, although Vanness is owner of the land which has been used as the only means of ingress and egress for the cemetery for 100 years, he should be enjoined from erecting the proposed derrick on the land, as it will prevent use of the burying ground.

COURT NEWS

Pleads Guilty.

Ray Smoots, indicted by the last grand jury on a charge of grand larceny, appeared in Common Pleas court Thursday morning and entered a plea of guilty, which was accepted by the court on recommendation of Prosecutor J. Howard Jones. Judge Fulton deferred passing sentence.

J. B. Lake, under indictment for forgery, entered a plea of guilty. Judge Fulton announced he would hear testimony to determine upon the sentence.

James Parker also agreed to enter a plea of guilty to the charge of failing to provide for his child. Judge Fulton sentenced the defendant to the Ohio penitentiary but suspended the sentence on defendant's good behavior and promise to support the child. Bond in the sum of $500 was required.

New Jury Law.

So far this year there has been no occasion for enforcement of the new jury law which provides that three-fourths of a jury in civil cases may render a verdict. The reason is that the law applies to cases filed after May 13 of this year.

The new law provides that all except criminal cases shall be tried to a jury of twelve men, eight of whom may render a verdict and that all of the jurors must sign the verdict which is returned to the judge on the bench when the case is tried. A verdict must be agreed upon by all twelve, in trial of a criminal case.

BOARD OF TRADE DIRECTORS WILL MEET TONIGHT

The board of directors of the Board of Trade will meet tonight at 7:30 at the office of the board to pass on plans submitted by the manager. It is to be a "live wire" meeting and much of importance will be done. The membership campaign, financial plan and the amendments in the by-laws will come up, and after this meeting a wide-awake campaign will follow. The new manager is getting out a weekly publication to be known as the "Ginger Snap," which will be an up-to-date unique publication, intended to keep the membership in active touch with the work and also for distribution. All our traveling salesmen will be asked to distribute them as they journey about.

There will be a meeting of the entire membership of the Board of Trade next Thursday evening at which time the directors will make suggestions as to the rehabilitation of the board and a general "get busy" time is promised.

Arrangements for a rousing public meeting the week following will be made and from the enthusiastic manner in which many erstwhile knockers are getting into line, much is expected in the way of an "Auld Lang Syne" affair. Every member should set up and take notice and if he has a little hammer bring it along and hang it up among the cherished but useless relics of old times.

"PINEY" PARKER IS ELECTED AUDITOR AT MT. VERNON, O.

Edward J. Parker, well known shoe dealer of Mt. Vernon was successful at Tuesday's election in his race for city auditor, defeating Stephen J. Dorgan, who held the office ever since it was created by the state legislature in 1902. Mr. Parker's plurality was 46.

Mr. Dorgan has had the unique honor of being unopposed on the ticket several times and once his candidacy was endorsed by the Democratic committee and his name appeared on both tickets. Mr. Dorgan is a newspaper man and has been a highly efficient official. He is also an officer in the City Auditors' association of Ohio.

Auditor-elect Parker is well known to many Newark men and has frequently been a guest of the local lodge of Elks. His friends will be pleased to learn of his success as a politician.

Agencies of Gout.

An English nobleman in a London club one evening gave some of his fellow members a picturesque description of the gout.

"You lie in bed," he said, "with the gouty food stretched out, and you feel as though the sole of it was pressed against the bars of a red-hot fire. In the middle of the furnace is a fellow with a gun loaded to the muzzle with red-hot needles. Presently he fires the gun at your foot, and you feel the red-hot needles travel up your leg and come out at the knee, not all at once, but like the animals that went into the ark, two by two. When the last couple of needles have finished the course you find yourself sweating with fear and wondering how long it will be before the fellow fires the gun again. Presently you find he is under contract to fire it every five minutes, and you get ready for the discharge, but you can never be said to get accustomed to it, because the blackguard loads it with a new kind of red-hot needle every time and sometimes adds half a dozen red-hot corkscrews. That's the gout."

Who would patronize gout after that?

The Spider and the Bee.

A correspondent of Countryside was sitting one day upon an English moor, watching a large beehive spider as it crouched expectant in its web. Suddenly he saw the spider firmly grip the web with its feet and shake it with all its might. After awhile it repeated the operation, and soon the reason became apparent. Whenever a bee flew near the web the spider gave this warning signal. It did not want any such visitor. If a bee happened to get entangled in the web the spider at once cut out that part and so rid itself of its unwelcome guest. That any creature can weave a web more intricate than a fisherman's net and, moreover, that it should possess the instinct or reasoning power to put the web in the best place and there patiently await its prey suggests that the border line between instinct and reason is far from distinct.

The Word Lady.

Connected, no doubt, with the cheapening of the word "lady" has been the practical disappearance of the "gentlewoman." The distinction between the two was brought out in the seventeenth century rules of civility, which declared that "in visiting a lady it is not enough to salute her, but her gentlewoman also, if she be then present." At the beginning of the nineteenth century "one who has marked with attentive observation the late vicissitudes in kingdoms and governments and, with a precision almost prophetic, foretold what would happen" advertised in the Times his readiness to "give such advice to persons of fortune as may prove of the very utmost importance to them." "When a lady requires an interview," said the advertisement, "a gentleman will give her the meeting."—London Mail.

Joseph Didn't Get It.

It is related that Napoleon ordered from Breguet, the famous Paris watchmaker, a watch for his brother, Joseph, who was at the time king of Spain. The back was of blue enamel, decorated with the letter "J" in diamonds.

In 1813 Napoleon was present at a military parade when a messenger arrived bearing a brief dispatch, in which it was stated that the French army had been completely defeated at Vittoria. It was manifest that Spain was lost. Always severely practical, all that Napoleon did, after glancing at the dispatch, was to turn to his secretary and say, "Write to Breguet and tell him that I shall not want that watch."

It is believed that the watch was eventually bought by the Duke of Wellington.

Alliterative Tongue Twisters.

A novel competition was held at a very Bohemian West End club recently for the best alliterative gem that would tie knots in the tongue of the most careful speaker. The following are some of the best of the "tongue twisters" sent in:

A growing gleam growing green
The bleak breeze blighted the bright blossoms.
Fish of freshly fried flying fish
Strict strong Stephen Stringer snared sickly six sickly silly snakes
The prize was won by the sender in of the following:
Give Grimes Jim's great gilt gig whip
—London Sketch.

Some Names.

Surnames are not what they seem. For instance, Lind is derived from a Teutonic word meaning a "snake." The apparently quiet and harmless surname Wren comes from a word which denotes "rapine." Fish, though such an innocent name in appearance, originally meant "impetuous."

Easy Problem.

A negro wished to deposit some money in the postal savings bank and the clerk asked him age. "Well, boss," he replied "I don't know jus' how old I is, but I was born in March an' you kin count it up for yo'self"—Every-body's.

His Selection.

"She told me to kiss her on either cheek."
"And you?"
"I hesitated a long time between them."—Lehigh River

Ignorance.

"Pa, what's a contretemps?"
"I don't know. I've never learned the names of all these automobile parts."—Judge.

Legislatures Most Corrupt When Shorn of Power

By Governor EMMET O'NEAL of Alabama

If state constitutions stand in the way of necessary reforms let those constitutions be amended. Let no narrow SPIRIT OF CONSERVATISM check us in our efforts to make our state governments more efficient.

The need of radical revision of many of the present methods of legislative procedure can be seen in the constantly growing distrust of state legislatures on the part of the people.

In some states this distrust has GROWN INTO OPEN CONTEMPT.

Various methods adopted to increase the tone and efficiency of legislative bodies have failed to improve the legislative output.
